IEP vs 504 IEP 504 Plan Must fit one of the IDEA disability · Any Disability eligibility categories · Focuses on how the child learns Provides specially designed · Limited rights and recourse if FREE for Parents parent is not satisfied accommodations Should meet the · No goals or progress monitoring Has goals and progress child's needs · Not a special education program monitoring · Requires a disability Procedural safeguards for parents · Overseen by OCR and HSS and evaluations; School required to include · School does not have to seek evaluation process is parental input to develop plan different for each IDEA/Dept of Ed and states are · School can change plan at any the overseers time without parental input All public schools must make this · Applies to any school receiving available to eligible students public funds Annual meeting with revisions

IEP / 504 Informational Workshop

- Is your child in need of accommodations in school?
- IEP and 504 plans are both ways to provide accommodations for students with difficulties in school

Join us at one of our workshops to learn the difference between IEP and 504 plans and how to obtain one.

